

LIRE AU CAMPING ? ÇA SE TENTE !

Dear campers,

Welcome to the campsite! We are happy to give you this literary kit, created by the Montreuil Children's Book Fair.

What's inside?

- An activity booklet (look at the back for how to play): Cut, play, and mix up animal parts. You can also decorate animal masks made by four artists from France and Switzerland: Ghislaine Herbéra, Marion Kadi, Julien Martinière, and Tom Tirabosco. Put on your mask, become an animal, and join the big parade!
- Postcards: send these to your family or friends, and invite them to listen to stories. Just scan the QR codes to hear stories read in French by actors and to watch fun videos about children's books. Don't forget to use the QR codes for bedtime stories in your tent!
- Bookmarks: use these while you discover French children's books.

Find more on slpj.fr:

- online games: puzzles, memory games, masks to download.
- Reading tips on animals, nature, and Paris.
- A map to help you find the nearest libraries and bookstores to your campsite. Did you know? There are over 15,000 libraries and 3,500 bookstores in France!

Turn the page and discover all you need to celebrate with books!

The animal parade

Let's have fun and party with family and friends!

Pick your spirit animal and step into its skin to create a colorful parade together!

1/ Choose your animal mask

An owl, a wolf, a monkey, or a bear: choose the animal that best represents you, or the one you would most like to be.

2/ Give your animal a name and personality

Choose a fun name for your animal and think about what makes it special. Is it shy, happy, grumpy? It is up to you!

3/ Move like your animal

Think about how your animal stands: on two legs, on all fours, or maybe on one leg? How does it move? What sound does it make?

Now that your animal is ready, say hello to each other!

Then, walk around and show off your moves.

Dance to the music and ask your friends to join the parade!
